Who We Are
We collaborate with faculty and students on the design and implementation of digital scholarly research projects. Housed in the University of Iowa Libraries, the Studio can shepherd digital projects from inception to archive.

Funding
We can help with finding, writing, and budgeting for grants that meet your project needs!
Subscribe to our weekly newsletter for updates on upcoming grant and conference proposal deadlines.

Digital Projects

DIY History
DIY History lets you do it yourself to help make historic artifacts easier to use.

Medellin After Escobar
A ride on the world-class Metro, the envy of Latin America, will show you some of Medellin’s triumphs today.

A full listing of projects can be found on our website! (lib.uiowa.edu/studio)

PDH Certificate Program
Study theories, methods and major debates in the digital humanities all while earning course credit.

Summer Fellowship
Gain experience and knowledge with new tools and programs as you work toward your independent research goals with the help of staff and faculty. Learn more about former Studio fellows and their projects on our blog!
